STICKY FILES

→ VICTIM: Mel

Sticky story: I didn't realise my phone was on speaker in my handbag. I kept hearing someone talk to me and call my name — it freaked me out! I was so embarrassed, I hung up!

Splat factor: 🍯🍯🍯

→ VICTIM: Jamie

Sticky story: A swarm of honey bees somehow made their nest in the top part of my toilet. They got in through that little tube outside the house and made the whole loo buzz for weeks until the beekeeper came.

Splat factor: 🍯🍯🍯🍯🍯

→ VICTIM: Marissa

Sticky story: I locked myself out of my house at 9pm and I live on the second floor! A couple of days later I ran out of petrol on the expressway and everyone honked at me!

→ VICTIM: Odette

Sticky story: I knocked a full glass of red cordial over on my lounge when I was watching a movie. It was icky and sticky for weeks!

Splat factor: 🍯🍯🍯

→ VICTIM: Ness

Sticky story: I needed to pee but was stuck in a FFX2 boss battle. I finally won and ran through the house screaming for the bathroom!

→ VICTIM: Hejira

Sticky story: I gavel Radicaw a pat at K-Z HQ and he took a swipe at me! The only way to escape a sticky sitch like that is to run out of the office really quick and not come back till the next day. Or switch Radicaw off. I went with the first technique!

Splat factor: 🍯🍯🍯

Splat factor: 🍯🍯🍯🍯

→ VICTIM: Rochelle

Sticky story: I locked myself INSIDE my house. I only realised I'd lost my keys when my friend came over and we stood on either side of the door trying to figure out a way for me to squeeze/climb out!

EYES

Our eyes remain the same size from birth.

There are tiny, tiny, tiny worms living in almost every single one of your eyelash roots.

NOSE

In the course of a lifetime the average person will grow two metres of nose hair!

You swallow almost one litre of snot every day.

EARS

Earwax dries up and forms little balls that drop out of your ears when you yawn, chew or swallow.

People who live in big cities produce more earwax than country folk.

TONGUE

One way to get rid of a tapeworm is to starve it for about four or five days, then put a cup of soup or some other food in front of your mouth. The tapeworm will then crawl out of your mouth!

The average human produces 23,658 litres of spit in a lifetime. That's enough to fill two swimming pools.

The average person has at least seven dreams a night, each lasting approximately two or three seconds.

The length of the finger dictates how fast the fingernail grows. So, the nail on your middle finger grows the fastest.

Average-sized adult humans have skin with a surface area of about two metres squared.

Big bums on the bog

Having a fat bum can make normal toilet seats a bit uncomfy – think bum fat flopping off the sides – but the Big John Toilet Seat hoiks up the comfort-level for dudes with big butts. The seats are specially designed with a bigger seating area and can take the strain of a mega bum bearing down on 'em. Shame these weren't around when Elvis and his podgy poopshute were...

Better out than in!

Toasting cloth: When you fart and a bit of poo comes out of your bum, smudges your dacks (leaving 'racing stripes') then pops back inside your butt!

Trouser cough: When you cover up a fart with a pretend cough.

Hot boxing: Farting in the car then winding up all the windows, turning the heater on internal air flow and taking a deep breath. Toasty and tasty!

A cocky can live for a week without its head, before dying of thirst. Not sure how long this one lived without its guts though!

Itching to bust moves like the pros?

The hottest kick scooter just got even hotter, now sizzle with all the toughness of the original Razor A and A2 Kick Scooters, the Razor A2 Kick Scooter has been boosted with front and rear wheel springless shock absorbing suspension, and a retractable kickstand, enabling the scooter to stand upright freely.

VROOM!

JUMP INTO THE DRIVER'S SEAT WITH V8 SUPERCAR DRIVER MAL ROSE

KZ: WHAT'S THE STICKIEST SITUATION YOU'VE EVER BEEN IN?

MR: In Western Australia I crashed into a tyre barrier and was knocked unconscious. I was very lucky I didn't break anything. I don't remember the crash, but it hurt the car. It was a very expensive crash.

KZ: HOW FAST DO THE CARS GO?

MR: The fastest track in Australia is Bathurst with a top speed of 290 km/hour. I'm planning a race overseas in June and the fastest you can go in that is 350 km/hour.

KZ: THE SAFETY GEAR MUST BE FULL ON...

MR: We wear FIA which is the highest-protection clothing grade. We get into a triple layer racing suit with fireproof underwear, fireproof gloves, socks, boots and a helmet with a balaclava.

KZ: DO YOU HAVE ANY GOOD LUCK CHARMS TO GET YOU THROUGH A RACE?

MR: I always wear my blue underwear. I know it's stupid but the days I haven't worn my blue ones, something has gone wrong so I just stick with them. I know it sounds dumb!

KZ: WHAT'S THE BEST THING ABOUT BEING A V8 SUPERCAR DRIVER?

MR: Kids come up to you and think you're a legend! That's really nice because I was one of those kids. I used to ask for Peter Brock's autograph. I wanted to get to that level and I've made it.

KZ: THOSE 60 DEGREE CABIN TEMPERATURES MUST GET STICKY - HOW DO YOU STAY COOL?

MR: Ducted air from outside the car blows air streams onto the driver. You can also get a cool suit that pumps chilled water through veins in your underwear so it circulates and keeps your body temperature down.

KZ: FORD OR HOLDEN?

MR: I own both. I'm lucky to have had success with my Holden at Bathurst, but I've had success with Ford production cars coming up through the ranks. I'm 50/50 each way.

A just-fresh-from-the-forest monkey named Lazlo is the first to discover that you can have a little bit of everything in a place that's not too far from home. Lazlo is a hip-hop Brazilian monkey and he's the first to discover that you can have a little bit of everything in a place that's not too far from home. ## CATCH IT

Watch it on Cartoon Network starting February 28.

THE BRAINS

Joe Murray is the creator and executive producer of Cartoon Network's latest original, animated series, Camp Lazlo.

KZ: Why did you decide on a camp setting for your new series?

JM: After I did Rocko's Modern Life, I kept this notebook full of ideas. Some of my best memories were always at camp. I wanted to do something that really got back to nature. I remember watching cartoons like Yogi Bear and Bugs Bunny where there were all these trees in the background.

KZ: You're working with a lot of the same cast and crew as you did on Rocko's Modern Life. How did you get them to come on board and join Camp Lazlo?

JM: We had a really good time on Rocko. We always kept in touch and they told me to look them up if I ever did another project. Many of them worked on SpongeBob SquarePants after Rocko's Modern Life, so they learned a lot there. We've got an incredible crew.

STICK UP YOUR HAND AND ASK OUR ANIME WHIZ A TOUGHIE!

Q. WOULD YOU SAY THAT DUEL MASTERS IS JUST A COPY OF YU-GI-OH? DID DUEL MASTERS COME FIRST?

Glenn Baynes,
Busselton, WA

A. They are quite similar, aren't they? In today's day and age a little 'inspiration' taken from here and there seems to be OK! Once something is released and makes a big splash, there always seems to be a few similar players trailing behind. This goes for music, films and even anime series! Yu-Gi-Oh! was created before Duel Masters and was a HUGE hit. Jumping on the bandwagon isn't always a bad thing because Duel Masters rocks!

Q. I AM A PROSPECTIVE FAN OF GUNDAM WING, BUT CAN YOU TELL ME A LITTLE MORE ABOUT ENDLESS WALTZ? IS IT SUPPOSED TO CARRY ON FROM GW? THANKS!

Leah Barnett,
Buchanan, NSW

A. You are correct! Gundam Wing: Endless Waltz is a three-part miniseries or OVA that follows on a year after the events of Gundam Wing TV. It has been available on DVD since 2003, so you should have no trouble locating it in stores! It's a great addition to the Gundam series and a great addition to any Gundam fan's collection!

Q. WHEN WILL POKÉMON STRAIGHT WISH MAKER COME OUT IN AUSTRALIA?

Ahmet Cinar,
Epping, Vic

A. There doesn't seem to be a release date set for this movie. Sorry Poké-fans! There are plenty of other great anime series worth checking out in the meantime, though! Astro Boy and Kimba the White Lion are always good value!

Q. IF BROLY IS SO STRONG LIKE GOKU, WHY DOESN'T HE TURN SSJ 3 OR 4?

Jason Lyne,
Darwin, NT

A. He hasn't discovered the secret techniques! Either that or he just isn't as smart or as cool as Goku! There are certain conditions to meet in order to achieve these Super Saiyan levels. Broly just isn't smart enough to find them, I guess.

Q. I'VE HEARD OF A NEW POKÉMON CALLED RUKARIO. IS IT REAL OR A HOAX? IF IT IS REAL, WHEN WILL IT BE SHOWN IN A CARD, MOVIE OR GAME?

Caelan Parle,
East Victoria
Park, WA

A. Move over Pikachu! This new Pokémon appears in the eighth movie as the new lead Pokémon.

VIVIAN TRAN,
NTH BALWYN, VIC

JAMES CULBERTSON, COFFS HARBOUR, NSW

ANIME ART

DORIAN MULCAHY, HURSTVILLE, NSW

Q. ANY IDEA HOW I CAN MEET UP WITH OTHER ANIME FANS, EITHER IN PERSON OR ONLINE?

Matthew McIntyre, Lobethal, SA

A. There are several ways. You can always join online forums and there are plenty of them around! The best place to start is probably on the Madman forums known as the Madboards!

Anime clubs have been the traditional starting place for a lot of people and there are plenty around in capital cities and also some in country areas.

The Madman website has plenty more details in the Fan Zone section.

Q. IS IT TRUE THAT THERE'S A LIVE ACTION SERIES OF SAILOR MOON?

Stephanie Koufalias, Enfield, SA

A. Indeed, there is! There is a 49 episode series and a few TV specials that have aired on Japanese TV. They're hilarious! But I don't hold out much hope for them to grace our TV screens here anytime soon, unless someone decides to redub them in English! They may be a little too wacky for our audiences! The anime version is still readily available on DVD, with the catchiest theme song ever!

Q. WHERE ON EARTH CAN I GET MY HANDS ON A COPY OF MEW MEW POWER? I HAVE LITERALLY TRIED EVERYWHERE IN AUSTRALIA! THANKS!

Anastasia Smith, Geraldton, WA

A. Unfortunately, it's not available to buy on DVD yet and there are currently no plans by anyone to release it locally either. Sorry! I want it too!

JUST 'COS SOME ANIMALS REEK AND OTHERS OOZE
GOO, DOESN'T MEAN THEY'RE NOT COOL!

SLIPPERY, SLIMY!

THE STINKIEST ANIMAL EVER

THE SKUNK

FULL NAME: Mephitis mephitis.
'Mephitis' is a Latin word meaning 'bad odour'.

LIVES: Two of the skunk species in my family, called the Mydaus genus, live in Indonesia and the Philippines while the rest of us inhabit the Americas, from Canada through to central South America.

LOOKS LIKE: I'm fairly short with little, muscular legs. I'm mostly black with a white stripe or spots on my back and you'll love my big, fluffy tail!

DIET: I'm an omnivore so I tuck into both plants and meat.

STINK FACTOR: I ooze a thick, yellow, oily fluid from two glands at the base of my tail – it's mega stinky! Each gland contains about a tablespoon of musk which is enough for about six discharges. If the musk's discharged all at once, it takes up to 10 days to replenish my supply, so I only spray as a last resort. I can spray up to six metres, so watch out!

WHY DOES MY SPRAY STINK SO BAD? Its main ingredient is a chemical called thiols, which also makes rotting flesh and poo reek.

Get rid of the smell of skunk spray with a mixture of hydrogen peroxide, baking soda and liquid soap.

RUNNER-UP: The Water Moccasin or Cottonmouth snake deters predators with its stink too.

THE SLIPPERIEST ANIMAL EVER

THE AXOLOTL

FULL NAME: I'm commonly known as the Mexican

Walking fish and belong to the group of tailed amphibians called 'axolotls'. 'Axolotl' means 'slippery or wrinkled one'!

LIVES: My natural habitat is in freshwater lakes and the murkier the better!

LOOKS LIKE: I look a bit like an underwater lizard with large, feathery gills that help me draw oxygen from slow-moving water. I come in a range of cool colours, including black, white, albino, yellow, gold and blue.

DIET: I munch earthworms, tadpoles, fish, grubs and strips of meat for dinner. Yummo!

SLIPPERY FACTOR: I use my slippery skin to breathe. It also lets me regrow lost limbs.

Mexicans have eaten

axolotls since pre-Aztec times – that's over 600 years ago!

RUNNER-UP: The Northern Slimy salamander has glue-like slime that takes days to wash off your clothes!

THE SLIMMIEST
ANIMAL EVER

THE HAGFISH!

Q: MY NAME: My proper name's the Atlantic hagfish or Myxine glutinosa, although I'm often known as the Slime eel or Slime hag.

LIFE: I live on the sea floor in the anti-tropical north and south oceans.

LOOKING: I'm one of the last surviving jawless fish. My skeleton is made up of cartilage and my gills are nothing but circular holes on my head. Plus, I don't have any real fins or scales and I look a bit like an eel but I'm not one!

FEED: I tuck into small, live fish, plus I like to burrow into the bodies of dead or dying fish and eat their flesh. Mmmm!

SLIME FACTOR: My slime is one of the most disgusting types known – it smells rank and is incredibly strong. It's so sticky that it can suffocate my predators! And the best bit is, I can offload a jug's worth of slime in one go!

Q: I'm the only fish capable of squeezing (which I do to clear slime from my gills). I'm also the only creature with a spine that can tie myself in a knot! I do this to provide leverage when drilling into my prey's flesh and to wipe slime off my body by rapidly sliding the knot up and down.

RUNNER-UP: The Australian Land leech, a black, slimy critter that attaches itself to other animals and survives by sucking their blood. Watch out, Aussies – vampires Down Under!

KICKFLIP

If you've mastered the ollie, have a crack at the kickflip.

Place your back foot on the kick and your front foot behind the front bolts. Stand on the toes of your front foot a little more than you would for an ollie. Once you've got balance and control, bend your knees.

Extend your body, pushing the tail down so the board clacks off the ground. Take pressure off your front foot so the tail hits the ground quicker and harder.

Slide your front foot up the deck and, in the same motion, kick your front toes off the edge of the deck to flick the board.

Talk the talk

Get down with all the skating lingo...

OLLIE: Making the board jump – the basis for most tricks.

DECK: The wooden part of the board.

KICK: The curved bit of the deck.

TRUCKS: The metal brackets under the deck that hold the wheels.

WIPE-OUT/SLAM:

Stacking it!

BAIL: An intentional fall to avoid a slam.

CARVE: Tilting the deck to turn the board with all wheels on the ground.

FAKIE: Going backwards.

HALF-PIPE: A skate ramp.

VERT RAMP: A half-pipe where the steepest bit goes straight down.

POSER: Someone who dresses like a boarder but doesn't skate.

I'm Yolanda Yogurt! I love sport, going out with friends, shopping and listening to music. And I always eat yogurt 'cos it's a quick and easy snack I can have on the run. Plus it tastes great!

TRY THIS EXPERIMENT OF HOME-MADE BUTTER

It's simple! All you need is time, strong arms and 300ml of Australian pure cream (with 45% milk fat) and a clean 500ml jar with a screw-top lid. Stir the cream then pour into your jar. Screw on the lid and you're ready for action! Now start shaking. Shake the jar for 12 minutes non-stop (hint: put on your fave music so you don't think about your tired arms) You will now find the cream has turned into butter which is surrounded by buttermilk—good to drink! Now try a bit of butter on a delicious sandwich or some hot toast. Yum!

Get three serves from a glass of milk + a tub of yogurt + 2 pieces of cheese!

You need calcium for strong, healthy bones and teeth. That's why calcium-rich foods, like milk, cheese and yogurt, are important for growing kids!

ME: What were the requirements in the ad?

V8 SUPERCARS 3

Available on: PS2, Xbox, PC

Rating: G

Release date: February 24

Score:

There are a lot of sim racing games on the market and with each release they get more realistic and more fun. V8 Supercars 3 has the perfect combination of speed, variety and realism. One of the most important features of a car sim is the handling, in fact it makes or breaks the game. V8 3 excels when it comes to control. Spinning a car around the Bathurst track is so realistic that you'll have to worry about carsickness, not to mention blowing a tyre or the engine – especially when hittin' top speeds and screeching around corners. While the name of the game is V8 racing, you're not limited to one style of motorsport. In fact, you can take part in 35 different motorsports, from Formula One to Muscle Cars, choose from 70 licensed cars, 80 tracks and have up to 21 cars on the track at a time. Set up the car, go for practise runs and take part in qualifying races. One of the biggest highlights is taking any car out on any track. See how well Mark Webber's F1 car does on the Bathurst track. Corners get interesting and chaos is guaranteed when you take a car out on a track it hasn't been designed for. One of the best racing games of 2006, it's worth checking out.

CHOOSE YOUR RIDE!

MONSTER TRUCKS

These massive mean machines can crush any vehicle that crosses their path. Imagine all the sticky situations you'll find yourself in! Bash and crash your way to the finish, taking no prisoners.

BAJA MOTOCROSS

Get some air with these dune buggies! While not the most stable ride, you'll have a lot of fun bumping around in these light vehicles.

SPRINT CARS

If you judged this race by its title you'd probably give it a miss, but don't be misled. Hit the oval dirt tracks in these and you'll be spinning out. The cars always steer left, so your job is to steer right and go as fast as possible.

LAWNMOWER

Ever seen someone race a ride-on lawnmower? No! Then you've seriously lucked out. Watching these mad machines chug along in a race will have you cracking up all over the place.

The lawnmower was invented in 1830 by EB Budding.

TY THE TASMANIAN TIGER 3: NIGHT OF THE QUINKAN

Available on: PS2, Xbox,

GameCube, GBA

Rating: PG

Release date: February

Score:

For those who may have missed the first two games, TY was created by KROME Studios in Brisbane and brings to life the characters of the Australian outback. TY the Tasmanian Tiger is a hero who keeps the area from otherwise certain disaster. With the help of the Bush Rescue – Dennis, Shazza and Sly – they're always finding themselves on missions to avert natural and unnatural disasters.

STORY

While Sly 3 took us into the outback for a visit it's awesome to play a game that is set entirely in Oz. Whether seeing all your fave animals or just hearing Aussie slang, like "fair dinkum" or "bonza", it's nice to have a game set where we live for once and not in the US. We have a pretty cool country and this game takes advantage of the landscape, animals and history. The story is loosely based around an Aboriginal legend from the Laura, Queensland area. Giant figures known as the Quinkan were, according to legend, spirit figures who lived in rock cracks and frightened people to keep them in line – kinda like boogiemmen.

GAMEPLAY

Whether you're using TY's strong Tasmanian tiger jaw to bite your enemies or relying on the power of your rang the weapons are a major drawcard for the game. From freezing and watching them shatter to burning them with lava, the rang is your ultimate weapon against the Quinkan. You can customise your rang with a ridiculous amount of varieties, which you upgrade by collecting opals. The other reason to play is the vehicles. Getting around has never been more fun. Of course there is no point in having high tech vehicles and not using them to take out your enemies and so combat abilities are built-in. With equal doses of action and adventure you'll jump on a path knocking away obstacles and destroy bosses in an open

The Tasmanian tiger is also known as the thylacine. The environment. Like every adventure game there is stuff to collect and you can even have a good Aussie summer swim. Continuing on from TY2 there have been new updates, with the game looking more polished. There is a good combination of old and new characters. The baddies are bigger with a range of Giant Robots, Uber Lizards and of course the Quinkan. With the Bush Rescue back together the only problem is trying to work out who is behind the Quinkan.

THIS MONTH'S FEATURED COLOUR: BLACK

The source of Black mana is the darkness and rot of the swamp. Black mana can make you strong - if you're willing to pay a price.

You reduce your rival's life by successfully casting certain spells and by attacking successfully with your creatures. The upper right-hand corner of each spell card shows the cost of casting the spell. This cost is in mana, which you get from your lands, and occasionally from other sources. There are five different types of mana—one for each basic type of land. Red mana comes from mountains, blue mana from islands, green mana from forests, black mana from swamps, and white mana from plains.

I need help getting to Rank 10 in the game MegaMan Battle Network 3 (white). Are there any cheats?

Cameron,

For Rank 10 check the Navi in Hades Area. Here is a quick secret!

First, do the job 'Legendary Tomes'.

Once you have the tomes don't go back to the Navi, instead go to the Teachers' Lounge. Look at the back shelf and examine the strange orange statue. There's a code in the statue that matches with the tomes and the data is 300000 zenny.

gum history

The ancient Greeks used to chew mastic - a chewing gum made from the resin of the mastic tree.

North American Indians chewed the sap from spruce trees and passed the habit along to the settlers.

Way back in 1848, John B. Curtis made and sold the first commercial chewing gum called the Stick of Pure Spruce Gum. In 1850, Curtis started selling flavoured paraffin gums which soon became more popular than spruce gum.

By 1888, an Adams' chewing gum called Tutti-Frutti became the first chewy to be sold in a vending machine. The machines were located in a New York City subway station.

A major breakthrough came in 1906 when Frank Row invented the first bubble gum called Chewing Gum. Unfortunately, the bubble blowing didn't really take off until 1928.

TOP 4 THINGS TO DO WITH YOUR BUBBLEGUM

What to do? Brought to you by BlowUp!

1 Chew it. Well doh... that was kind of obvious.

2 When you run out of blue tack, use your gum to stick your cool K-Zone posters to your bedroom wall. Need a sugar fix? Simply peel back your poster and give the wall a lick!

3 Use it to stick the head back on your broken Lego man after your little sis' ripped it off 'cos you wouldn't share your gum!

4 Chew as much Bubblegum as you can fit in your mouth, then when it's nice and soft, spit it out on the kitchen bench and use it as modelling clay. It's kinda like play doh but without the salty after-taste.

Did you know? did you know? did you know?

- In A.D. 50, Ancient Greeks were also believed to chew mastic. Grecian women often chewed this to clean their teeth and sweeten their breath!
- During World War 2, US military personnel spread the popularity of chewing gum by trading it and giving it as gifts to people in Europe, Africa, Asia and around the world.

Q. What's the best thing to do with bubblegum?

'Pop bubbles all over people's faces' Max, 12

'Chew all day' Max, 12

'Stick it in people's hair' Jackson, 10

'Blow massive bubbles' Danna, 13

The nice people at BlowUp! recommend the responsible consumption of gum - keep it in your mouth!

Q. What bubblegum flavour would you invent?

'Rainbow' Marcus, 11

'Chocolate Caramel' Marcus, 11

'All flavours like in Harry Potter'

'Apple' Nicholas, 10

did you know? did you know? did you know?

- Every year North American kids spend about half a billion dollars on bubblegum.
- Forty million pieces of bubblegum are chewed every day, 26,000 pieces of bubblegum chewed every minute and 444 pieces chewed every second.

BlowUp! GUMMY GAMES

Blowing basic bubbles is the biz but don't stop there! Here are our top tips for wasting boredom with games for gum.

In Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Violet Beauregarde holds the record for the longest time anyone's chewed a single piece of gum. Blow her record out of the stratosphere!

I win! Gimme the ball!

Be the class clown! Juggle as many bits of bubblegum as you can and after 30 seconds, you get to eat all the bits you haven't dropped!

Did you know? did you know? did you know?

▪ The first gumball machine was placed outside a supermarket in 1907 and sold out of gum within two hours.

▪ Detectives have been known to identify criminals by comparing the suspect's chewed gum to their dental records.

MEET KUNO

NAME: Kuno Becker

BIRTHDATE: January 14, 1978

BIRTHPLACE: Mexico City, Mexico

HOBBIES: Acting, singing, playing the violin and motorbike riding.

FAVE TUNES: Everything from classical to rock music.

BIGGEST FEAR: Aeroplanes

SEEN HIM BEFORE? Probably not!

Until his big break in Goal!, Kuno starred mostly in Mexican films and TV productions.

CURRENTLY WORKING ON: Goal! 2 which hits cinemas later this year.

K2: HOW WERE YOU SELECTED FOR THE LEAD ROLE OF SANTIAGO MUNEZ IN GOAL!?

KUNO: It was a hard process because my football isn't great. I had to do a football audition and train for a couple of weeks in London.

K2: WHAT OTHER PREPARATION DID YOU DO?

KUNO: I had to do five or six hours of football training a day before filming started, which included work in the gym and on the field.

K2: WHAT WAS THE HARDEST FOOTBALL SKILL TO MASTER?

KUNO: Definitely the keep-ups! I had mastered how to kick a ball properly, but the skills were so tricky.

WORLD CUP FOOTBALL FEVER DEFINITELY KICKED IN WHEN K-ZONE CAUGHT UP WITH KUNO DECKER, STAR OF THE NEW FOOTBALL FLICK GOAL!

K2: WERE THERE ANY STACKS OR STUFF-UPS YOU WANT TO FESS UP TO?

KUNO: I trained so hard that I broke both of my ankles and then had a stress fracture.

I remember once trying to kick the ball around before one of the games and I stacked it in the mud. It was very embarrassing in front of such amazing footballers!

K2: WERE YOU A FOOTBALL FAN BEFORE THE MOVIE?

KUNO: I was a football fan, but definitely not a huge fan. I'm not really the guy who knows everything about the game.

K2: WHAT'S YOUR FAVE FOOTBALL TEAM?

KUNO: I love Real Madrid. They're awesome!

K2: WERE THERE ANY EMBARRASSING MOMENTS WHILE FILMING GOAL!?

KUNO: There were so many that I've lost count!

KUNO'S INSIDE SCOOP ON GOAL! 2

"IN THE SECOND FILM, SHYLOCK, A HUSBAND FROM LA, BECOMES A MASSIVE INTERNATIONAL FOOTBALL STAR AND A SUPER FEARING CELEBRITY. THE INTERESTING THING ABOUT THE STORY IS THAT HE HAS TO DEAL WITH ALL THE FAME AND GLORY AND WITH EVERYTHING ELSE THAT COMES WITH BEING A FOOTBALL STAR. GOAL! 2 IS A LITTLE DARKER, MAYBE A LITTLE MORE HUMILISTIC, BUT I THINK YOU KNOW ARE GOING TO LOVE IT".

Keep an eye out for Goal! 2, also featuring soccer greats David Beckham, Ronaldo and Zinedine Zidane, screaming into cinemas later this year!

Fiddy Hits Down Under

He may look like the nicest dude on the rap music scene, but we can't wait for 50 Cent to make some noise in our own backyard! Here's some stuff we bet you didn't know 'bout 50...

- 50 Cent was raised in Queens, New York by grandparents.
- That's not a dimple on Fiddy's left cheek. It's a bullet wound.
- After a music label bidding war, 50 Cent signed with Eminem's Shady/Aftermath label for a reported sum of $332 million.
- A three-man security crew isn't enough to protect him. Fiddy wears a bulletproof

- vest religiously, as do members of his G-Unit crew.
- 50 Cent's SUV car is also bulletproof and, wait for it, bombproof!
- He is touring this month in New Zealand and Australia!

GROSS WORLD RECORDS

If you wanna break a gross Guinness World Record then gear up for an icky, sticky situation.

Snotty Shake

In front of a disbelieving studio audience, American Gary Bashaw Junior mixed milk and chocolate powder in his mouth then squirted 54 ml of the choocle shake out of his nostrils to crack a new record. And, wait for it, he then guzzled the tasty mix!

Snotty Snack

The hottest & most famous food item blown out of someone's nostril and caught in the mouth of someone else is a 4.48 m by American Scott Jickel and his partner Snotty Snotty. With the blow and catch they caught the record projectile in his gut. Eeeurghh...

Snotty Spaghetti

American food lover Kevin Cole holds the record for the longest spaghetti strand blown out of a nostril in a single blow. The bolognese buff sucked a strand into his mouth and blew it a distance of 19 cm out of his honker.

Up Your Bum

The eggs of the world's most bloodthirsty parasites, hookworms Ancylostoma duodenale and Necator americanus, are found in the poop of 1.3 billion people worldwide. In cases of heavy infestation, the lining of the gut is so thickly covered with worms that they look like carpet! The bleeding resulting from these suckers feeding adds up to 10 million litres of blood worldwide every day. Yuck!

Sniff Me, Stinky!

Madeline Albrecht was employed for 15 years in a testing lab for foot care products. During her career she had to smell thousands of feet and armpits. She has sniffed approximately 5,600 feet (earning her a record!) and an indeterminate number of armpits. Love your work, Maddy!

Who Let Rip?

Reckon your brother's bum releases the world's worst stink? Well, the actual smelliest molecules on Earth are ethyl mercaptan and butyl seleno-mercaptan. They smell like a combination of rotting cabbage, garlic, onions, burnt toast and sewer gas. Even your bro's butt's got nothin' on that!

Bloodsucker

You may have spotted a little tick on your dog's ear and hopefully you'll never discover the world's largest tick. Known as Hard Ticks, these bloodsucking, eight-legged parasites can expand their body to a whopping three centimetres – the size of a large walnut – to accommodate the volume of blood they suck to survival.

COMIC ZONE

SUPER STICKY!

SOMETIMES EVEN SUPERHEROES FIND THEMSELVES
IN SOME REALLY STICKY SITUATIONS

SUPER SHOWDOWN

Many arguments have centred around who'd kick whose butt – The Hulk or Superman – so rival comic houses DC Comics and Marvel pitted their respective Superheroes against each other in an epic duel. Fans voted on the outcome of the sticky sitch and for the record, The Man of Steel made a meal of the big, green fella.

DOWN FOR THE COUNT

When a crazed creature called Doomsday brought mayhem to Metropolis, the unthinkable happened – Superman died! In Superman #75, The Man of Steel stopped Doomsday, but paid with his life. The November 1992 comic was one of DC Comics' biggest sellers, making headlines around the world. Millions of people who hadn't bought a comic in years wanted a piece of the action.

Naturally, death couldn't hold Superman down. Several imposters tried to fill his shoes before the real Superman returned to fight again. With Superman Returns hitting cinemas this year, the big man's looking as strong as ever!

THE GIRL GETS IT

Failed millionaire Norman Osborn, aka the villainous Green Goblin, blamed Peter Parker for his downfall and rocked up at his apartment looking for revenge. Except neither Parker nor his alter ego Spider-Man were at home, so the Green Goblin settled for kidnapping Parker's girlfriend Gwen Stacy.

Spidey went to Gwen's rescue and a super sticky struggle on top of the Brooklyn Bridge followed. When Gwen was knocked off the bridge, Spidey grabbed her ankle with his web – but he was too late. Gwen was a goner! Like any self-respecting Super, Spidey soon tracked down the Green Goblin to even the score, impaling him against a brick wall. That's gotta hurt!

Will Buster and the Gelmet Helmet

One Monday, Will Buster is sitting through another boring history lesson about the Wizard Wars of the 21st century, when he finds out he has been selected for the opportunity of a lifetime. Or that's what his parents seem to think. A high-speed HoverPod whisks Will away to Professor Alphonse Gelmet's Academy of Leadership Excellence. Here, special helmets effortlessly deliver information into students' brains. Without doing any work at all, they become walking, talking encyclopaedias!

Will Buster and the Carrier's Flash, the second book in this futuristic fantasy trilogy is available at all good bookshops from March 6, 2006!
